All Children are Beautiful Val Kilmer
I was just walking on the beach with my kids today
We didn't have no plans yeah we just lazed and played
Then I played a game Who could be the most truthful
And I said, "In all the world they were the most beautiful."
But my daughter said, "No"
And I said, "Oh?"
She said, "Daddy look around, look around"
She said, all
She said, all children are beautiful
Sing all children are beautiful
All, all, all
We had so much fun
Just laughin' under the sun
Splashing our cares away in the blue waves as one
And when we were done
Into the ease of my son
He sang all children are beautiful
Sing all children are beautiful
All sing all, all
Um bum bum Um bum bum
We held hands Built castles in the sand
And as the sun went down I felt so calm and warm
And all the way home I Knew that hole in me was gone
I knew I'd never be alone
'Cause life is full and warm and round and round
'Cause all, said all, children are beautiful
Sing all, children are beautiful
All, yes all, all
