

Title: Frontier Justice

Lyrics: Val Kilmer

---

(I love you)
I've been dreaming
You've been screaming
I could see you go ever since you let me know you're taking that job across town
I followed you yesterday
My second sight told me you might go that way Yes, I saw you with him you took his hand
you went in that motel room you drew them blinds
I went over Jimmy Furlow's, he's off hunting in Mexico
I took his 45, ain't gonna tell no lie I walk right through that rain (on Main) trying to feel my brain, my hand went numb oh God, thinking what I had done It's 18 years now, still can't see how no one saw or stopped me in that summer rain
All that blood, all that pain
I prayed and washed away, anyway I'm here to stay (Sorry, honey what was that you said?)
Oh Yeah, we're real proud he's starting tonight, real proud) Lettered in football, basketball his freshman year
Got something to prove I guess, pray I deserve my boy's respect
Frontier Justice
Frontier Justice
Frontier Justice
Frontier Justice
I've been dreaming,
my boys been beaten
I've been dreaming
he stands out screaming
Frontier Justice
Frontier Justice